Seeking creative kids to join the cast of the 2011 Tehiyah Lower School Play. Students enrolled in the class will work with Eric to create an original sketch-comedy production based on stories written by Tehiyah students. The class will culminate in an ensemble-based performance for the school and parents in February. All students enrolled in the class will perform in the show. Class members will explore ensemble building, acting, comedy and movement. The show will include stories, songs and video work. Possibilities include the adaptation of stories, radio plays, poems, creative nonfiction, monologues, science fiction and newspaper reporting. Join us!

Instructor: Eric Silverberg is the Creative Arts teacher at Tehiyah Day School. He has directed plays for students of all ages and is an experienced actor and musician who honed his improv skills in Chicago.
