Go Girls! Afterschool Club, presented by Glitter & Razz Productions, celebrates the magic and power of being a girl through the performing and visual arts. Girls are supported through drama, creative movement, and expressive arts to explore real-life issues important to them such as friendship and social dynamics, bullying, peace and justice, and the environment. Each session culminates in a one-of-a-kind original play that the girls work together to create, practice, and perform.

Instructor: Shara H. F. Shadowspeaker has over 17 years of experience as an artist and art teacher, and holds a BFA in drawing and painting, and a Masters in art education with K-12 license. Shara is trained in Glitter & Razz Productions' Make a Play. Change the World Methodology™ that supports elementary school children to create and perform their very own peaceful and powerful plays that support their social/emotional development.
