

TAP After School Music Lessons

Please contact teacher to schedule lesson and for payment information.

Piano, Violin, Tin Whistle

Teacher: Ondine Young

Contact: ondinetyoung@aol.com or cell: (310) 293-8085

Cost: $30 per lesson (1/2 hour)

Available Times: Monday Wednesday Thursday
4:30-6:00 3:15-6:00 4:00-6:00

Ondine Young directs choirs and string courses of all ages at The Crowden School of Music/CMC, St. David of Wales, Kairos, and other Bay Area institutions, maintains a private teaching studio (Arlington Arts), and was a conductor for the San Francisco Boys' Chorus. Dr. Young completed a doctorate in musical arts in choral and early music at the University of Southern California, studied at UC Santa Cruz and UC Santa Barbara, and was formerly on the faculty of the University of San Diego. She performs as a violinist and violist with early music ensembles throughout Northern and Southern California, such as the American Bach Soloists, Philharmonia Baroque Orchestra, Musica Angelica, Magnificat, Jubilate, El Mundo, and is founding member of La Monica (www.lamonicaensemble.com).

Flute, Beginning Clarinet, Beginning Saxophone

Teacher: Jane Magid

Contact: jane@janbrains.com or (510) 672-0607

Cost: $30 per lesson (1/2 hour)

Available Times: Monday Tuesday Wednesday Thursday
4:15-6:00 3:15-6:00 4:15-6:00 3:15-6:00

Jane Magid currently directs band for grades 4-6 in the West Contra Costa and Albany unified school districts. She has taught flute and coached chamber music in the after-school music program at Head-Royce School since 1989 and has directed instrumental music at Windrush School. She holds a degree in flute performance from the San Francisco Conservatory of Music and plays in a woodwind quintet.

Guitar

Teacher: Josh Baxter

Contact: josh@preschoolblues.com (510) 847-2142

Cost: $30 per lesson (1/2 hour)

Available Times: Tuesday Wednesday Thursday
3:30-5:30 3:30-5:30 Check with instructor

Focusing mostly on rock, blues, and folk music smattered with music theory as the student is ready, Josh Baxter has been teaching guitar to teens and adults for over eight years. Using songs as the foundation for his teaching Josh includes chord progressions, scales, rhythm, or simple one note melodies. Josh keeps the learning process simple, fun, and lighthearted also taking into account different learning styles. A teacher most of his adult life, Josh has taught adults and children of all ages in various roles including camp counselor, sailing instructor, preschool teacher, and as a music teacher to preschoolers and their parents.

Guitar, Beginning Electric Guitar, Bass Guitar, Jazz, and Blues Piano

Teacher: Yonatan Landau

Contact: ylandau1@gmail.com or (510) 207-3850

Cost: $25 per lesson (1/2 hour)

Available Times: Monday	Thursday	Friday
3:30-5:00	3:30-5:00	3:30-5:00

Yonatan Landau is a graduate of the UC Berkeley Music Department. In addition to playing gigs as a jazz pianist, saxophonist and singer, as well as playing and recording with his Bay Area dance rock band "The Dance," and pop-folk trio, "Microlovers", he was a camp counselor and music and performance arts ("Kessem") specialist for four years at Camp Gilboa. He taught a popular class in pop and rock harmony at UC Berkeley and completed his thesis in natural acoustics and historical temperaments. In addition to guitar and piano, Yonatan also teaches jazz saxophone, songwriting and improvisation, and voice. He currently organizes for the non-profit startup Berkeley Student Food Collective.

Drum Kit

Teacher: Jim Thorne

Contact: (510) 237-4426

Cost: $30 per lesson (1/2 hour)

Available Times: Thursday 4:00-6:00

Jim Thorne is a professional musician who has performed with artists as varied as the Temptations to the Escovedos. Many of his students have become professional drummers.